Welcome to Art in Norwich Autumn / Winter edition

Here we are again with details of more great exhibitions coming up in the city and across the county. There are some ongoing shows which you still have time to catch – Henry Moore and Norfolk by Design at Houghton Hall, the Waveney Valley Sculpture Trail at Raveningham and WG Sebald in East Anglia at Norwich Castle to name a few.

FANN19 Festival of Architecture has events through October/November and an exhibition at The Forum 28 October to 3 November.

OUTPOST are marking 15 years of their member-run gallery with a series of events and exhibitions – a great achievement, pg 39.

At the Sainsbury Centre, Magdalene Odundo's show is a stunning display of ceramics and glass plus the permanent collection and a show by Sonny Assu in the East End gallery – see pages 43-45.

In the At a Glance to the left, the green strips indicate longer-running exhibitions that last beyond the month in which they start.

About Art in Norwich

This programme is the result of a collaboration of the Norwich Visual Art Forum, a number of organisations who promote visual art, public art, craft and architecture in and around Norwich. The aim is to gather visual art listings in one place so that they are easy to find and to offer an overview of art activity and infrastructure across the city and throughout the year. The Norwich Visual Art Forum is a self-supporting partnership of visual art groups and organisations active in Norwich and the surrounding area.

We hope you will keep this booklet safe as it covers six months' programming. Because of space limitations and lots going on, exhibition and event details are brief but you can find out more from individual organisations and venues from their own websites. See pages at the back of the booklet for maps, contact and venue details.

Please also visit our website at www.artinnorwich.org.uk where you can download a pdf of this programme.

Important: All information is subject to change - please check with individual organisations before travelling to an event.

This is the third in a series of exhibitions exploring the notion of place, in works from Norwich Castle Museum & Art Gallery's collection of modern and contemporary art.

The selection of works in this exhibition draw on the rich variety of figurative work in the collection, exploring how the human figure is integral to our understanding of place. The exhibition reflects on the relationship between place and the body, and how this relationship shapes the landscapes we inhabit.

Please see the King's Lynn Festival website www.kingslynnfestival.org.uk for details of other exhibitions, workshops, events and a talk by the curator. Dr Rosy Gray.

Wednesday 2 October 2019 The Auditorium, The Forum, Norwich, 7pm GRANDEUR AND NON-FINITO a talk by Anthony Howell

Is there an alternative to thinking about art in terms of modernism and postmodernism?

Instead, 'rivers' of artistic practice are proposed, with two rivers discussed at length in an enguiry that analyses the 'sublime' in terms of a fusion of enlargement and the notion of the incomplete. Opposed to the 'sublime', the 'abject' is a term that is often proposed.

Here, Anthony Howell proposes four rivers concerned with beauty and four concerned with ugliness, which can be seen as of equal importance to art – in terms of the grotesque, the immoral, the capricious and the uncanny.

Saturday 12 October to Thursday 21 November 2019 PORT-2-PORT

Port-2-Port is a brace of art exhibitions curated by Norfolk Contemporary Art Society members.

In medieval times the two ports of Great Yarmouth and King's Lynn were major players in English sea-born trade, one trading mainly with the Low Countries and the other with the Hanseatic ports of the Baltic.

This pair of reciprocal exhibitions will draw attention to these two beautiful and historic towns by exchanging artworks from artists in one port with those from artists in the other, exhibiting them consecutively in galleries in each other's port and connecting them visually, despite the surprising distance that separates them.

The Great Yarmouth artists are John Kiki, Emrys Parry, Brüer Tidman, Katarzyna Coleman and Bridget Heriz, sometimes known as the Yarmouth Five, and curators are Selwyn Taylor and Keith Roberts, both neas trustees.

The King's Lynn and West Norfolk artists are Esther Boehm, Kate Giles, Lee Grandjean, Chloe Mandy and Stephen Parr, and curators are Caroline Fisher and Chris Mardell, also neas trustees.

North of the City – take a walk

The north of the city is rapidly becoming becoming a hot-spot for new artists and creative businesses.

Around Duke Street, Anglia Square, Pitt Street, Magdalen Street and St Augustines there is a new wave of artist-led regeneration. In all cities there is an area which gets a bit run down and property is left empty. As values drop, it becomes feasible for artists and start-up businesses to rent space. In some cases, enlightened developers allow artists to have spaces for 'meanwhile use' until areas can be redeveloped such as St Mary's and St George's Works just off Duke Street where the Shoe Factory Social Club and Lion House are accommodating artists and creative uses.

New galleries and spaces have popped up in Magdalen Street, as well as Nunnsyard, Yallops and Thirteen(a) in St Augustines Street and Print to the People, Men's Shed in Pitt Street off Anglia Square.

Norwich Hackspace, Artpocket, the Royal Drawing School, Bev Coraldean, Lennie Beare and other artists have settled into Lion House Studios in Muspole Street, right opposite the Muspole Street Studios which has accommodated artists and potters for many years. Many of the studios in this area offer hands-on sessions in printmaking, pottery, drawing, textiles, illustration and painting.

Member-led group OUTPOST has run a gallery in Tombland for 15 years and also manages around 80 artist studios in Gildengate House in Anglia Square. These all give opportunities to emerging artists, students and creatives of all ages.

As well as galleries and art spaces, there are vintage shops, makerspaces and artist shops, ethnic foods, and antiques and collectables in dig-around caverns where you will find interesting bargains and artefacts.

Take a walk along Magdalen Street and find Anteros Arts, Sahara Café, Looses, Dhaba at Fifteen, Aladdin's Cave, the Make Place and much more.

This is definitely an area of the city to have a poke around in and explore – please do!

Norwich Studio Art Gallery

Norwich Studio Art Gallery, Upper St Giles, Norwich

Norwich Studio Art Gallery has been a part of the Norfolk art scene for over 10 years. Housed in a seventeenth century former butchers shop this small gallery is a colourful part of local life in Upper St Giles. The gallery specialises in modern and contemporary fine art with a focus on Eastern European arts and crafts.

The Studio Art Gallery is open 10 am to 5pm Wednesday to Saturday. If you are making a special journey please phone in advance to check.

Artist and curator Gennadiy Ivanov works prolifically from his studio in Upper St Giles and at Outpost Studios in Gildengate House. He loves painting people and his work is vibrant, large and strong.

He says 'My works are about the fragility of nature, humans and the World. I am inspired by nature and music. I capture the emotional and the intellectual energy of my vision to reprocess the structure of serendipity. I listen to and am influenced by my feelings and create a world that is a visual feast. This is a world that is resolved in colour, form, texture, and emotion'

Gena has curated a number of successful exhibitions in the Undercroft in Norwich and in 2019 is involved in a major project, Transitions, exploring the impact of climate change.

Royal Drawing School

The Royal Drawing School is an independent, not-forprofit resource that aims to raise the standard and profile of drawing through teaching and practice. It is one of only a few institutions in the world offering indepth, quality tuition in drawing from observation.

Drawing is a primary language natural to all human beings, and fundamental to all aspects of learning and thinking from childhood onwards. It is a crucial route to innovation across the creative disciplines and beyond, from fashion, fine art and animation to filmmaking, product design and engineering. For some people, drawing is the easiest way of thinking.

Isabella 15 vears

The Young Artists Programme for 10–18 year olds offers a unique opportunity to students from all backgrounds who want to develop their drawing skills through serious sustained tuition. These skills prepare them for a range of studies and careers in which drawing and creative thinking provide an important foundation. The programme is taught by professional artists who are alumni of our postgraduate programme, The Drawing Year, and experienced in teaching children.

Founded in 2000 by HRH The Prince of Wales and artist Catherine Goodman as The Prince's Drawing School, it became the Royal Drawing School in 2014.

Saturday Young Artists programme at Lion House, Muspole Street, Norwich

The Royal Drawing School offers weekly sessions in 10-week terms in Norwich at a 1st floor studio in the north of the city.

The clubs are for young people who have a passion for drawing and want to learn and improve their skills.

The morning Drawing Club is for 10–14 year olds, and the afternoon Young Associates sessions for 15–18 year olds. Annually, there is an exhibition of their work at the Norwich Cathedral Hostry.

Regular drawing at any age can enhance focus and concentration and increase self-esteem, and this can be especially beneficial for school-age children. The Young Artists programme helps children retain and develop their drawing abilities and sustain their enthusiasm for self-expression within an artist-led environment.

The skills learned can also support students' pursuit of a wide range of creative subjects in school, further and higher education, and open doors to careers in the arts, design, architecture, and science.

The Young Artists programme is led by professional artists who are alumni of the Royal Drawing School's postgraduate programme.

A quick guide to art in Norwich

View of Norwich from City Hall towards Norwich Castle

Norwich is a medieval city which, in its hey-day, rivalled London in terms of size and was, for many years, England's second city, being only 100 miles from the court of London. It was a wealthy city with its fame built on the textile trade, weaving and particularly wool. Nearly half of the population was French, Dutch or Flemish and engaged in the weaving trade - hence the name of the football club, the Canaries, called after the birds which the weavers kept for company.

In the Industrial Revolution, Norwich was off the beaten track for commerce and transport and so attracted artists, philosophers and radical thinkers, and was home to the famous Norwich School of Painters. Many religious non-conformists also settled here and the place became a hotbed for artists and writers, as it is today. It is also now a UNESCO City of Literature.

Amongst its many cultural assets Norwich can claim:
Norwich University of the Arts, one of the best universities for courses in animation and film, fine art and illustration, architecture, games design, graphic design, fashion, media and much more,
including East Gallery^{NUA} in St Andrew's Street.

Norwich Castle and the Sainsbury Centre at UEA are world-class venues, attracting national-level touring shows, with permanent collections of World Art as well as work by Picasso, Henry Moore, Francis Bacon, Modigliani, Degas and local masters – Munnings and the Norwich School of Painters including contemporary work from artists such as Colin Self.

Norfolk and Norwich Festival in May, an international multiarts annual festival with 17 days of concerts, outdoor arts and theatre, both mainstream and left-field, as well as an increasingly innovative and site-specific visual arts programme.

Norwich Arts Centre is a multi-arts venue with a visual art programme which includes live art, photography and digital art and Norwich Cathedral has an events programme with a regular cycle of exhibitions in the Hostry as well as the Hostry Festival in autumn.

There are a number of artist-led galleries and studios, notably OUTPOST, Fairhurst, Yallops, Nunnsyard and St Etheldredas - and some well-established and very active, artists' groups such as Norfolk Contemporary Art Society, Anteros Arts Foundation, Norwich 20 Group and the Lonely Arts Club.

Venues such as St Mary's Works, Assembly House and St Margaret's Church all support artists and host exhibitions along with several commercial galleries such as Fairhurst and Mandell's. As well as Art in Norwich partners, there are over 900 practising visual artists and groups in Norfolk and a thriving underground arts scene in addition to the main institutions, www.artinnorwich.org.uk

WHERE TO GO IN NORFOLK

As well as exhibition venues listed in this booklet we have included other locations of interest and that often have exhibitions. The whole Norfolk coast is beautiful and varied and the coast road offers splendid views over saltmarshes and beaches. The north coast is especially good for bird watchers, seals, sailing and fishing.

A drive along the coast will take you through many picturesque villages with galleries and craft shops. Inland, market towns are also local hubs of activity. To the west and south are the Brecks – open heathland and forests.

ART IN NORFOLK

Norwich is set in the stunning county of Norfolk. It is the centre of a busy rural hinterland, varied and beautiful. Because there is space, there are over 800 visual artists working here and it has a long history of being a creative place. And the skies, the light and the landscapes have been an ongoing source of inspiration too. Across the county you will find many galleries and exhibitions in larger venues and also pubs and cafés.

For more, check local tourist information, the National Trust properties Felbrigg and Blickling, Houghton Hall, Mannington Hall and the market towns of Diss, Wymondham, Loddon and Harleston to the south, Holt, Aylsham, Reepham, Cromer, Sheringham, Blakeney to the north, Great Yarmouth and Lowestoft to the east, King's Lynn to the west.

And if you fancy some non-art time, you can't beat the Norfolk coastline, the Brecks and the famous Norfolk Broads.

Explore Norfolk - you will get hooked! www.visiteastanglia.net

"What if the contents of those shelves could speak? What languages are contained within the leather-bound pages? What voices of travellers and explorers are captured within?"

Explore a series of multimedia installations and live projects at Blickling Estate, created by artists Neville Gabie and Joan Gabie that draw inspiration from the most significant book collection cared for by the National Trust. Looking through a contemporary lens, the artists bring to life the contents of four of the books, exploring lost language and the edge of science, space and discovery.

A varied programme of events will support the art works from May to October. Find out more and book at www.nationaltrust.org.uk/blickling

'The city of Norwich has many fans, of which I am one. It has a fantastic and historic urban fabric, a alorious rural hinterland and an unparalled coastline of which I am proud to be able to tell people. I support the football club here and applaud the initiatives which I see taking place all over the city, wrought by the many excellent cultural organisations who work together to ensure an excellent quality of life for the citizens and those who are lucky enough to visit or stay.'

Art in Norwich comes out twice a year. Spring and Autumn and is funded by its partners working together to showcase the great art in Norwich and Norfolk all year and every year.
